

Hope you enjoyed the Love Challenge and you were able to connect and learn about your spouse in a new way. To conclude our Love Challenge, we would encourage marriages to keep nurturing their relationship with their spouse. Keep Christ at the center of your marriage. With God all things are possible.

We would like to encourage you to continue to find new ways to connect and celebrate your life together. For those couples that still would've liked more challenges, we leave you with one final challenge that can last a long time.

Final Love Challenge: Create a Marriage Bucket List with your spouse of things you would hope to do together. It can be as simple as taking a picture underwater of the two of you kissing or riding a hot air balloon. It can also be spiritual like doing a devotional together or renewing your vows. This final challenge is personal and tailored to you and your spouse's needs and dreams. This will help the both of you to pursue new things together that will strengthen your marriage and your love for each other. You can write it on a poster or type it up together. Keep it in a place you will both refer to it and check off items from your list as you complete them. You can set up a deadline by when you hope to complete the items on your Bucket List. It can be Things to Do before our next anniversary or before our 10th, 25th, 30th, 50th wedding anniversary.

Be purposeful and dedicated to make your L.O.V.E. (Living Our Vows Everyday) endure and "until death do us part."